

UNIVERSITY SAN FRANCISCO OF QUITO

January 26, 2023

Abstract

The Economic Complexity has shown an interesting growth as economic theory on the last decade with some focuses as public policy, geographical economics, and macroeconomical growth. Here, I characterize the ecuadorian industrial and investigative productive networks to model a prognostic of the future industries growth based on the research networks.